Council goes on the road in bid to CONNECT WITH COMMUNITY

Burntwood Town Council is going out on the road around the town and is inviting more local residents to come along to their meetings to see what subjects are being discussed and how decisions affecting the town are made. The next Town Council meeting is on 13 May 2020 at Burntwood Library, Sankeys Corner. The meeting starts at 6pm.

Burntwood Town Councillor elected onto Values and Principles Board

Councillor Sue Woodward, has just been elected onto the Values and Principles Board of the Co-operative Councils Innovation Network.

The network is a nationwide non-party political active hub committed to a co-operative approach to policy development, innovation and advocacy. As part of the values and principles board Sue will work with other board members to provide scrutiny of the work of the organisation.

She will also actively seek and facilitate engagement and debate among network members. This last responsibility is very relevant to Burntwood Town Council's ambitions for a Better Burntwood, which envisages a more active and engaged community.

Former telephone boxes in Burntwood to be used to house defibrillators

This is the second batch of phone boxes offered to Burntwood Town Council to potentially help save lives.

This new batch [located at Morley Road Shopping Centre, Oakdene Road and Fernleigh Avenue] provides more defibrillators in areas that are central to the community and local businesses.

Burntwood Wakes Festival

Calling all local craft people and food traders!

Burntwood Town Council is looking for people to display and sell good quality craft goods at the Wakes Family Fun Day at Burntwood Leisure Centre on Saturday 11 July from 12 noon until 4 pm.

Grant to support dementia-friendly services across Burntwood

Burntwood Town Council has been awarded a grant of £1,500 to support its work on developing dementia-friendly services across the town.

The Town Council plans to use the grant to support local work to help people living with dementia and their carers. In particular the funding will be used to help identify gaps in service provision, to remove barriers that prevent access to services and support local groups that provide early advice and help.

Burntwood Cemetery - Memorial Plaques

Burntwood Town Council has approved the provision of plaques on a memorial wall situated in the St Matthews Cemetery. All enquiries should be emailed to: admin1@burntwood-tc.gov.uk
